

Alaska Mining: Moving Forward in Challenging Times

Alaska Support Industry Alliance
February 11, 2021

Deantha Skibinski
Executive Director
Alaska Miners Association

Karen Matthias
Executive Director
Council of Alaska Producers

Mining Activity in Alaska

Conflicts on the Federal Front

 General Motors @GM

Norway is crushing us at EVs. That's crazy. We have to do better. Are you in? #EverybodyIn-
#NoWayNorway

1:23 864.3K views Norway. (Laughs)

5:01 AM · Feb 3, 2021 · Twitter Web App

 U.S. Department of the Interior Search

Press Releases

Schedules Advisories Video Photos Blog Archive

FACT SHEET: President Biden to Take Action to Uphold Commitment to Restore Balance on Public Lands and Waters, Invest in Clean Energy Future

State of Alaska Legislative Priorities

- Sustainable fiscal plan
- Science-based regulations that encourage economic growth
- Initiative Reform

State of Alaska Regulatory Priorities

- DNR Water Regulations Revisions
- DNR Mining Regulations Revisions

Alaska Mining: a bright spot in 2020

- 4,700 direct and 9,600 direct and indirect jobs attributed to Alaska's mining industry
- Average wage of $115,000; twice the state average
- Year-round jobs for over 90 Alaska communities
- $175 million to Alaska Native Corporations
- $880 million in purchases of good and services to 600 Alaska vendors
- $166 million in taxes to local & state governments

Long term partnerships and rapid support

- Tuluksak water crisis
- Haines landslide
- PPE donations
- Scholarships
- Sustaining support to non-profits

Thank you!

Deantha Skibinski
Executive Director
Alaska Miners Association
deantha@alaskaminers.org
(907) 317-6323

Karen Matthias
Executive Director
Council of Alaska Producers
kjmatthias@alaskaproducers.org
(907) 301-1022

